

You should remove the NJ Do not call list. How can business continue to operate if they can not follow up with past clients and prospective clients. It is a infringement on our ability to conduct business.